

Legal Advice Surgery

We're here to help you

Are you worried about losing your home due to relationship problems?

Are you experiencing problems at home as a result of relationship issues?

Would like to know how your housing situation could be affected if your relationship ended?

The Legal advice surgery can help to identify the options available under Family/Matrimonial law that may help you to maintain your accommodation and avoid homelessness.

What help can the Legal Advice Surgery provide?

The Legal Advice Surgery allows you to have free advice with a trained Family Law solicitor to identify the legal options that are available to you to allow you to remain in your current accommodation. Advice can be given on the following areas:

- Domestic violence issues
- Disputes involving children
- Divorce and related financial matters
- Disputes over property

Who provides the service?

Newcastle Housing Advice (acting under contract on behalf of Newcastle-under-Lyme Borough Council) fund Beeston Shenton Solicitors, a local company, to deliver the surgery on a weekly basis.

Beeston Shenton are specialists in Family Law and are experienced in advising on problems that arise on the breakdown of relationships.

In the event that your partner has received advice via the surgery it will be necessary for you to receive advice from an alternative solicitor. This can be arranged for you by Newcastle Housing Advice.

How do I access the Surgery?

For further information contact Newcastle Housing Advice on 01782 635200, who will be able to make an appointment for you.

How much does it cost?

The initial appointment is free of charge, although if you wish to pursue any legal options after this you would need to fund this yourself (you should ask the solicitor if you would qualify for public legal funding).
