Introduction

The Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (MLR 2017) came into force on 26 June 2017. They implement the EU's 4th Directive on Money Laundering. In doing so, they replace the Money Laundering Regulations 2007 (MLR 2007) and the Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2007 which were previously in force.

Whilst the majority of money laundering activity in the UK falls outside of the public sector, vigilance by employees of the Council can help identify those who are or may be perpetrating crimes relating to the financing of terrorism and money laundering.

This policy, together with supporting guidance notes aims to support staff in identifying potential suspect transaction during the course of their work at Newcastle Borough Council. The policy provides a mechanism for such transactions to be reported to an appropriate officer for evaluation and potentially passed on to the relevant authorities.

What is Money Laundering?

Money laundering is the generic term used to describe the process by which criminals disguise the original ownership and control of the proceeds of criminal conduct by making such proceeds appear to have derived from a legitimate source. In other words, the process of changing 'bad' money into 'good' money in order to hide the fact that the money originated from criminal activity.

The following Primary Offences constitute the act of money laundering:

- concealing, disguising, converting, transferring criminal property or removing it from the UK (section 327 of the 2002 Act); or
- entering into or becoming concerned in an arrangement which you know or suspect facilitates the acquisition, retention, use or control of criminal property by or on behalf of another person (section 328); or
- acquiring, using or possessing criminal property (section 329);

Secondary Offences

There are also two secondary offences: failure to disclose any of the primary offences and tipping off.

Failure to Disclose – A Council employee commits an offence if they know or have reasonable grounds to suspect that another person is engaged in money laundering and they do not make the required disclosure as soon as is practicable after the information comes to them.

Tipping Off – A Council employee commits an offence if they inform a person or people who are, or are suspected of being involved in money laundering, in such a way as to reduce the likelihood of it being investigated or prejudicing an investigation.

Whilst the risk to the Council of contravening the legislation is low, it is extremely important that all employees are familiar with their legal responsibilities: serious criminal sanctions may be imposed for breaches of the legislation. The key requirement on employees is to promptly report any suspected money laundering activity to the Money Laundering Reporting Officer (MLRO).

What are the obligations on the Council?

Whilst Local Authorities are not directly covered by the requirements of the Money Laundering Regulations 2017, guidance from finance and legal professions, including the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accounting (CIPFA), indicates that public service organisations should comply with the underlying spirit of the legislation and regulations and put in place appropriate and proportionate anti-money laundering safeguards and reporting arrangements.

The Regulations apply to “relevant persons” acting in the course of business carried on by them in the UK. Not all of the Council’s business is “relevant” for the purposes of the legislation. It is mainly accountancy and financial, company and property transactions. However, the safest way to ensure compliance with the law is to apply them to all areas of work undertaken by the Council; therefore, all staff are required to comply with the reporting procedure set out in this policy and the Anti-Money Laundering Staff Guidance.

The obligations on the Council are to establish and maintain appropriate and risk sensitive policies and procedures. Organisations must:

- appoint a Money Laundering Reporting Officer (“MLRO”) to receive disclosures from employees of money laundering activity;
- implement a procedure to enable the reporting of suspicions of money laundering;
- maintain client identification procedures in certain circumstances; and
- maintain record keeping procedures.

Section Dd7 of the Council’s Financial Regulations states that all Directors need to ensure that their employees are made aware of and comply with the Council’s Money Laundering Guidance.

Customer Due Diligence (Client Identification Procedure)

Standard Customer Due Diligence

Where the Council is carrying out certain regulated business (accountancy, audit and tax services and legal services re financial, company or property transactions) and as part of this

a) forms an ongoing business relationship with a client

- b) undertakes a one off or occasional transaction amounting to €15,000 (approximately £13,000) or more (whether carried out as a single transaction or several linked ones)
- c) suspects money laundering or terrorist financing;

then the Customer Due Diligence Procedure must be followed before any business is undertaken for that client. This means identifying the customer and verifying the customer's identity on the basis of information obtained from a reliable and independent source.

Enhanced Customer Due Diligence (and Ongoing Monitoring)

It will in certain circumstances be necessary to undertake what is known in the Regulations as Enhanced Customer Due Diligence. In summary, this will be necessary where:

- The customer has not been physically present for identification purposes; or
- In any other situation which by its nature can present a higher risk of money laundering or terrorist financing.

Where this applies, the Council will need to take adequate measures to compensate for the higher risk. For example, this will mean ensuring that the customer's identity is established by additional documents, data or information and ensuring ongoing monitoring is carried out for the duration of the business relationship.

Similarly, where the Council is in an ongoing "business relationship" with a customer, the Regulations impose a special obligation to carry out ongoing monitoring.

The Money Laundering Reporting Officer (MLRO)

The officer nominated to receive disclosures about money laundering activity within the council is the Executive Director of Resources and Support Services.

In the absence of the MLRO, the Finance Manager is authorised to deputise.

Both of these officers can be contacted as follows:

Executive Director Resources and Support Services or Finance Manager

Newcastle-under-Lyme Borough Council
Resources Directorate
Castle House,
Barracks Road,
Newcastle-under-Lyme,
Staffordshire.
ST5 1BL

Telephone: 01782 742106 (Secretary to Executive Director Resources and Support Services)

Telephone: 01782 742119 (Finance Manager)

The MLRO or deputy must promptly evaluate any disclosure to determine whether it should be reported to the National Crime Agency (“NCA”). This can be done via their website: www.nationalcrimeagency.gov.uk

A “Suspicious Activity Report” can be completed online on the NCA website. The NCA can be contacted on 0370 496 7622.

Disclosure Procedure and Reporting Requirements

Cash Payments

The Council already has procedures in place to limit the amount of cash that it receives, with other payment methods being made available. Section Dd6 of the Council’s Financial Regulations stipulates that cash payments in excess of £2,000 will not be accepted.

Financial Regulations Dg4 Receipts, in excess of £10,000, and any bank payments from unknown or overseas banks shall be evaluated and evidenced to ensure the legitimate source of the funds.

Reporting to the Money Laundering Reporting Officer (MLRO)

Any employee who suspects money laundering activity is taking place, or an employee who becomes concerned that their involvement in a matter may amount to a prohibited act under the legislation, must disclose this promptly to the MLRO.

The disclosure should be made to the MLRO or deputy using the proforma report attached at Appendix A to the Anti Money Laundering Staff Guidance document. The report must include as much detail as possible.

The employee must follow any subsequent directions from the MLRO or deputy and must not make any further enquiries themselves into the matter. Additionally, they must not take any further steps in the transaction without authorisation from the MLRO or deputy.

The employee must not disclose or otherwise indicate their suspicions to the person(s) suspected of money laundering. They must not discuss the matter with others or note on a file that a report has been made to the MLRO in case this results in the suspect becoming aware of the suspicion.

Risk Management and Internal Control

The risk to the Council of contravening the Anti-Money laundering legislation will be assessed on a periodic basis and the adequacy and effectiveness of the Anti-Money Laundering Policy and Staff Guidance will be reviewed in light of such assessments. Money Laundering as a risk will be included on the Council’s Grace Risk Management System.

Record Keeping

To comply with the legislation, records must be kept for a period of five years and be sufficient to provide an audit trail for any subsequent investigation.
